Mission Etimos:

Our business mainly focuses on providing opportunity for the consumer and bringing a new culture that is highly developed in the western world but not as much in Balkans. By bringing a new culture we mean more and more companies aiming to be part of the website and rapid increase of consumers using this channel to get the necessities. This can be done by changing the perspective of people on e-commerce.

Etimos aims to sell other companies products through e-business shops to customers which in return receives provisions.
